

Alumni Support Coordinator, Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses UK

Hybrid (two days per week onsite), Hayes House, Oxford and Egrove Park, Kennington
Grade 5: £32,108 - £37,338 per annum including the Oxford University weighting of £1,730 per annum
Fixed-term (to 31 August 2027), full time (36.5 hours per week)
Saïd Business School, University of Oxford

The role

The Alumni Support Coordinator is responsible for the planning, preparation, logistics and delivery of the alumni community programme for Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses UK. The role is central to ensuring a high-quality experience for alumni businesses, faculty and stakeholders by coordinating operations, communications and events to the highest standard. The post-holder will also play an active role in maintaining stakeholder relationships and ensuring service excellence throughout the alumni lifecycle.

The role reports to the Senior Alumni Engagement Manager and works closely with the Data & Insights Lead, Programme Coordinators and other colleagues across Executive Education and Saïd Business School.

Responsibilities

The Alumni Support Coordinator will:

- Programme planning and delivery – Coordinate planning, preparation and delivery of alumni programme events and activities, ensuring high standards of organisation and service.
- Stakeholder engagement – Build and maintain positive working relationships with participants, alumni, clients, faculty, guest speakers and internal teams across Executive Education.
- Event logistics – Manage booking and delivery of venues, accommodation, catering, travel and enrichment activities, liaising with internal services and external suppliers.
- Programme materials and quality assurance – Prepare, proof and distribute programme materials, maintain learning platforms and apply robust quality assurance processes.
- Virtual delivery – Host and support webinars, monitor attendance, manage recordings and ensure smooth delivery of online sessions.

- Budget support – Process invoices and expenditure and liaise with suppliers to ensure value for money.
- CRM and data management – Use Salesforce to maintain accurate alumni records, update profiles, track engagement and support reporting requirements.
- Alumni communications – Support the creation and delivery of alumni communications, community platform updates and engagement activities.
- Evaluation and improvement – Administer programme evaluations, analyse feedback and suggest improvements to enhance participant experience.
- Team contribution – Work collaboratively with the Alumni, Programme and Data & Insights teams, supporting ad hoc projects, meetings and initiatives that contribute to the success of Executive Education.

Selection criteria

Essential selection criteria

- Strong interpersonal skills, with the ability to build positive relationships with a wide range of stakeholders.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills, including active listening and clear, professional responses.
- Demonstrated ability to plan, prioritise and multi-task effectively while meeting deadlines and quality standards.
- A proven track record of delivering excellent customer service and stakeholder engagement.
- Experience in organising and delivering events (in-person, virtual or hybrid), including liaising with suppliers and managing logistics.

- High level of attention to detail, with a commitment to quality assurance in materials and communications.
- Confident user of CRM systems (preferably Salesforce) and Microsoft Office applications.
- Self-driven, adaptable and motivated to continuously learn, reflect and improve.

Desirable selection criteria

- Knowledge of the SME business sector.
- Experience working in higher education or a professional training context.
- Familiarity with community platforms and alumni engagement approaches.

Pre-employment screening

Standard checks

If you are offered the post, the offer will be subject to standard pre-employment checks. You will be asked to provide: proof of your right-to-work in the UK; proof of your identity; and (if we haven't done so already) we will contact the referees you have nominated. You will also be asked to complete a health declaration so that you can tell us about any health conditions or disabilities for which you may need us to make appropriate adjustments.

Please read the candidate notes on the University's pre-employment screening procedures at Pre-employment Checks (<https://www.jobs.ox.ac.uk/pre-employment-checks>).

About the University of Oxford

Welcome to the University of Oxford. We aim to lead the world in research and education for the benefit of society both in the UK and globally. Oxford's researchers engage with academic, commercial and cultural partners across the world to stimulate high-quality research and enable innovation through a broad range of social, policy and economic impacts.

We believe our strengths lie both in empowering individuals and teams to address fundamental questions of global significance, while providing all our staff with a welcoming and inclusive workplace that enables everyone to develop and do their best work. Recognising that diversity is our strength, vital for innovation and creativity, we aspire to build a truly diverse community which values and respects every individual's unique contribution.

While we have long traditions of scholarship, we are also forward-looking, creative and cutting-edge. Oxford is one of Europe's most entrepreneurial universities and we rank first in the UK for university spin-outs, and in recent years we have spun out 15-20 new companies every year. We are also recognised as leaders in support for social enterprise.

Diversity and Inclusion

Oxford Saïd is committed to fostering an inclusive culture which promotes equality, values diversity and maintains a working, learning and social environment in which the rights and dignity of all its staff and students are respected. We recognise that the broad range of experiences that a diverse staff and student body brings strengthens our research and enhances our teaching, and that in order for Oxford to remain a world-leading institution we must continue to provide a diverse, inclusive, fair and open environment that allows everyone to grow and flourish.

Oxford Saïd holds a bronze Athena Swan award to recognise advancement of gender equality: representation, progression and success for all.

Our Values

To better understand our Values, what behaviours demonstrate them and how they are involved in your everyday work we have created the below descriptors.

Transformational

We challenge constructively, provoke thought, and influence and inspire others to develop.

Respectful

We are caring, supportive, appreciative, embrace difference and value each other's opinions.

Entrepreneurial

We embrace and encourage change and innovation. We are creative, flexible and brave.

Collaborative

We are stronger together. We are inclusive, approachable, listen to others and value good communication.

Purposeful

We are a community who believe in sustainable growth, and are responsible, principled and transparent.

Excellence

We are professional, focused and aligned, and have a responsibility to do the very best we can.

Wellbeing

Saïd Business School acknowledges the importance of wellbeing, in enabling people to thrive at work and ensure a work-life balance. It provides a number of initiatives to help support wellbeing and would encourage you to participate. At an individual level, wellbeing means recognising what helps us remain resilient and taking appropriate steps. If we experience difficulties, doing our best to rectify them and making our line manager aware of aspects that they could support us with.

Social Sciences

Oxford Saïd is a department within the Social Sciences Division, one of four academic Divisions in the University, each with considerable devolved budgetary and financial authority; and responsibility for providing a broad strategic focus across its constituent disciplines.

The Social Sciences Division represents the largest grouping of social sciences in the UK: home to a number of outstanding departments and to the internationally ranked Law Faculty; all are committed to research to develop a greater understanding of all aspects of society, from the impact of political, legal and economic systems on social and economic welfare to human rights and security. That research is disseminated through innovative graduate programmes and enhances undergraduate courses. For more information please visit Social Sciences Division (<https://www.socsci.ox.ac.uk>).

Important information for candidates

Data Privacy

Please note that any personal data submitted to the University as part of the job application process will be processed in accordance with the GDPR and related UK data protection legislation. For further information, please see the University's Privacy Notice for Job Applicants at Job applicant privacy policy (<https://compliance.admin.ox.ac.uk/job-applicant-privacy-policy>).

The University's Policy on Data Protection is available at Data protection policy (<https://compliance.admin.ox.ac.uk/data-protection-policy>).

The University's policy on retirement

The University operates an Employer Justified Retirement Age (EJRA) for very senior research posts at grade RSIV/D35 and clinical equivalents E62 and E82 of 30 September before the 70th birthday. The justification for this is explained at The EJRA (<https://hr.admin.ox.ac.uk/the-ejra>).

For existing employees, any employment beyond the retirement age is subject to approval through the procedures. Please see The EJRA (<https://hr.admin.ox.ac.uk/the-ejra>).

There is no normal or fixed age at which staff in posts at other grades have to retire. Staff at these grades may elect to retire in accordance with the rules of the applicable pension scheme, as may be amended from time to time.

Equality of opportunity

Entry into employment with the University and progression within employment will be determined only by personal merit and the application of criteria which are related to the duties of each particular post and the relevant salary structure. In all cases, ability to perform the job will be the primary consideration. No applicant or member of staff shall be discriminated against because of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage or civil partnership, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation.
